Loyola's Contributes to Grey Cup

Loyola College is doing its thing for the Grey Cup. The west end college will be providing the eastern conference football champions, the Ottawa Rough Riders with practice facilities prior to Sunday's Grey Cup against Saskatchewan. The Rough Riders equipment will arrive today and the times scheduled for workouts are tomorrow at 3:00 pm. and Saturday at 11:30 am.

Loyola's excellent facilities has been used by the Montreal Alouettes as a pre-season training ground so no difficulties are expected either with facilities or the practice fields.

Loyola's Majorettes and Cheerleaders are entered in Saturday's Grey Cup parade. The only college majorettes entry in the mammoth parade, Loyola's girls will be representing all of the Canadian colleges on the nationally televised parade.
